CAMP AIGER FOR STUDENT NURSES

Opens in State Today to Secure 450 Women to Enroll—Age Limits Are 19 to 25—Enrollment Station Arranged For in This City—Women Will Hold Themselves Ready to Enter Hospital Training Schools.

Norwich is to begin today (Monday) to do its part in helping to fill the Connecticut quota of 450 women for the United States Student nurse reserve.

Under arrangements made by Miss Sarah Leavens, enrollments are to be made at the present Plaut-Cadden store on Main street, where some persons will be stationed for two hours each day during the campaign from July 29 to the evening of August 11, to receive the enrollments. The hours when names will be received will be from noon to 1 p. m. and from 5 to 8 p. m.

Notice of this call for service was read in many of the churches of the city on Sunday.

Women between the ages of 19 and 25 will be eligible and those who enroll will agree to hold themselves in readiness to enter hospital training schools as student nurses. Every community in this state is to be covered thoroughly by the provision of the Woman's Division of the Connecticut State Council of Defense.

The war is creating an unprecedented demand for trained nurses. Only those who have taken the full training course are eligible for service with American forces overseas. These nurses are being drawn largely from hospitals here at home. Their places must be filled by the student nurses enrolled for the full training course.

At the office of the Woman's Division of the State Council of Defense, Mrs. W. Alcott of Avon is chairman of the division. All other members are either trained nurses or physicians.

At the office of the Woman's Division of the State Council of Defense the following information concerning this enrollment is given out:

The call is for women between the ages of nineteen and thirty-five. Qualifications—Intelligent, responsible women of good education and of sound health are wanted—the pick of the country.

Enrollment—Women will be given MAKE APPLICATIONS FOR $100,000 FARM LOANS

In New London County Through Operation of the Farm Loan Act.

Applications for loans that total $100,000 in New London county have been made through County Director Simon Rosano of Preston under the operation of the farm loan act.

That the benefit of the system, appeals strongly to the agricultural interest is confirmed by the statistics embodied in the report and justified by the conviction that this legislation will afford an excellent stabilizing influence to the field of rural credit.

One hundred and twenty National Farm Loan associations, through which loans are granted, have been organized with 350 members, while loan applications total nearly $12,000,000. Of this number nearly 2,000 loans have been approved by the bank for a total of $1,000,000. The number of applications and the amounts approved by states are as follows:

Maine	565	$568,159
New Hampshire	51	$83,100
Vermont	208	$18,300
Massachusetts	604	$1,279,105
Rhode Island	61	$9,850
Connecticut	336	$42,375
New York	1078	$2,523,500
New Jersey	232	$13,350

Persons desirous of obtaining information as to the farm loan system and the methods used in granting loans were commended with the Federal Land bank of Springfield or with Simon Rosano, secretary of the National Loan association, which operates in New London county.

FIELD SECRETARIES UNDER STATE DEFENSE COUNCIL.
Allyn L. Brown is Appointed for the County of New London.

Ex-Mayor Allyn L. Brown of this city has been appointed field secretary for New London county and Frank Brainerd of Portland for Windham and Windham counties to do organization work under the direction of the Connecticut state council of defense.

The field secretaries will assist in reorganizing town committees of the council into war bureaus, and will cooperate with war bureaus in making more efficient their work of guiding civilian war activities.

This is the most recent expansion of the state organization appointed by Governor Holcomb to carry on Connecticut's war activities, and is a step which the executive department of the council believes will prove an important factor in building up its state-wide efficiency.

Concrete Pavement Buckles in Heat.
Under the intense heat of last week's sun, a large concrete pavement buckle in the Franklin street front of the Thayer building has buckled and cracked so that it will be necessary to put in a new block. The cracked surface has been ripped up in preparation for making the repairs.

AUTO SMASHUP.
At Chelsea Parade—Williams Street Man's Car Badly Damaged.

A well known resident of Williams street had his automobile badly smashed up Sunday morning about 10 o'clock at the Chelsea Parade when his machine was run into as he was turning from Washington street to go into Williams street. An automobile driven by a Polish resident of Fitchville crashed into the other machine, though it is said there was room enough to have avoided the collision.

Beyond a few minor cuts suffered by the Williams street man, the damage to the two machines was the only serious result of the smashup.

STUDENT-NURSE CALL

READ IN CATHOLIC CHURCHES

Bishop Nilan Hopes Young Women of Diocese Will Volunteer For Service as Young Men Have.

A circular letter from Bishop Nilan to the pastors of the diocese, read at the three masses in St. Patrick's Sunday, directed attention to the urgent need of 25,000 student-nurses. Bishop Nilan referred to the call of the State Council of Defense, Connecticut's quota being 450. He expressed the hope that the volunteers would greatly exceed the number called for, that the young women of the diocese may prove themselves as ready to offer their services for their country as have the young men now fighting abroad.

Directions how and where to volunteer locally were given.

At the 10.30 mass at St. Patrick's church by Rev. Myles P. Galvin, the preacher was Rev. Peter J. Cury who chose the brief sermon of the aged Saint John as his text, "Children Love One Another." Love of neighbor presupposes love for God, and one is impossible without the other. Love of neighbor summarized, means to do, say, or think no evil as far as one's neighbor is concerned.

AUTO BUS RUN INTO

BY TOURING CAR.

Suddenly Circled Around Ahead of Approaching Automobile.

One of the Norwich-New London auto buses was run into on Sunday afternoon about 4 o'clock on Main street, at the foot of Cliff street by a touring car owned and driven by Charles Hilton of New York, causing a smashed radiator to the touring car, but no damage to the bus.

According to accounts of the accident, Mr. Hilton was approaching Franklin square in his machine when a five and one-half ton bus, coming from the opposite direction, suddenly circled around ahead of the touring car, which could hardly avoid running into the bus.

Policeman Charles Perry arrived on the scene and turned in his report at police headquarters after taking statements from those concerned in the accident.

One of the best catches of bass yet reported at Gardner Lake was a string of 18 taken there Thursday by a casual visitor at the lake who had "beginner's luck," as he is a very infrequent fisherman and knows little about the sport.

SUNDAY BREAKFAST.

Gen. Aiken Speaker at Y. M. C. A. to Soldiers and Sailors.

On Sunday morning for the fifteenth consecutive Sunday, the local Young Men's Christian association served a home cooked breakfast to the sailors and soldiers who spent the week end in Norwich, and as on previous Sundays the fellows gave evidence of deep appreciation for the meal consisting of sausage, baked beans, bread, butter, coffee and doughnuts, for which the small sum of fifteen cents was charged as usual. Members of the Y. M. C. A. auxiliary assisted by several young ladies did the serving. Beautiful flowers including sweet peas, dahlias and carnations were contributed.

The brief address at the tables was delivered by Gen. W. A. Aiken, who held the closest attention of the boys from the moment he began to speak. He told of his thrilling experience in the early days of the Civil war when he was charged with the responsibility of delivering an important message to President Abraham Lincoln. He told of the perilous journey, beset with dangers of his arrival in Washington, and of the delivery of the message to President Lincoln. He said that he never had seen a face so sad as was Lincoln's on that occasion. The general told a very impressive story of his conversation with the president, and of his kindly words which he could never forget. General Aiken told Mr. Lincoln of a great difficulty in the way of his making the return journey, and of the practical way in which the president made the return journey for him to the city of difficulty. At the close of the address the men of the service applauded enthusiastically.

Draft Bill Will Reach Britishers.

Lieut. J. W. Newberry of the New Haven depot of the British and Canadian recruiting mission has heard from men who have recently volunteered that the draft bill is a great difficulty in the way of their return journey, and of the practical way in which the president made the return journey for him to the city of difficulty. At the close of the address the men of the service applauded enthusiastically.

Dance at Camp Dewey.
An informal dance was given by the U. S. Junior Naval Reserves in the Camp Dewey mess hall on Saturday evening. The affair was one of the largest given since the camp opened for the summer course of training at Keegan.

Mr. and Mrs. George T. Brown chaperoned a party of New London young women who attended the dance.
